

Woppaburra

welcoming
whispers through the leaves Woppaburra voices
night skies lit up
waterways of blues
weathered beaches and headlands whoop whoop birds that call wind that blows softly whales, dugongs, turtles, dolphins wedded to the islands
through story lines
song lines
totems Woppaburra people
wandering thicknees and curloos wooing, wailing
to the spirits
ancestors
wirey grasses
where rocks become smooth weathered with time
wonderful places
wellness places
Woppaburra
